

ACADEMIC HONESTY STUDENT EVALUATION FORM

Dear Students,

This evaluation form will help us know if you understood academic honesty principles. Please carefully read each criterion below and click the relevant boxes so that we can schedule an education program that you need most about academic honesty!

CRITERIA	Yes	No	Undecided
I know what cheating means
I know what academic honesty means
I know academic honesty rules about tests and examinations
I know academic honesty rules about homework/assignments and presentations.
I know what plagiarism means
I know what it means to organize and submit information in wrong or correct terms
I know that it is not an honest behavior to copy someone else's work or not to give references
I know that I should not be working collaboratively on an assignment which has been specifically stated to be completed individually
I know I shouldn't damage works of others
I know what bibliography/ references means
I know that writing a bibliography is an academic honesty behavior
I know what information should be included in bibliography/references
I know which steps to follow when creating a bibliography/ writing a list of references
I know how to create a bibliography/ write a list of references

Explanation/Comment of the student:

.....

.....

.....

.....

Name-Surname:

Grade:

Signature:

Date: